164 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

165 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

166 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

167 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

168 An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

169 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

170 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

171 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

172 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.
